George H.W. Bush

George H.W. Bush went into the U.S. Navy when he was twenty years old. He fought in WWII.

He flew to Japan to attack a radio tower on an island. His plane was shot down. He used a parachute and landed in the ocean. He was rescued by a submarine.

He made a decision to serve people. He had many jobs working in business and government. He became president of the U.S. in 1988.