

Tips for Writing a Response for Text-Dependent Writing (TDW) Narrative Grades 4 and 5

The Writer's Checklist was designed to help you understand the expectations of the TDW.

Writer's Checklist

PROOFREAD after you write your narrative.

- I addressed all parts of the writing task.
- I included connections from the source material(s) in my narrative.
- I stayed organized and focused on the writing task.
- I used correct language, a variety of sentence types, and transitions in my narrative.
- I corrected errors in sentence formation, punctuation, capitalization, grammar, usage, and spelling.
- I reread my narrative to make sure it was clear and well organized.

1. The TDW requires an extended response. Your response must be focused on the task and be organized to include a strong opening, complete plot, setting, well-developed narrator and characters, and a closing. The writing needs to be clear and well organized.

2. Organization matters. A TDW response needs to be structured in a logical way. Your plot needs to be organized in a way that makes sense for readers. Transitional words and phrases should be used to show logical connections and to clarify the flow of your writing.

3. You MUST connect your response to the text(s). The connections should be specific and contribute to the narrative.

4. Answering the TDW requires higher-level thinking skills.

- Think: Read the TDW task and analyze the text(s) to determine how to address the writing task.
- Infer: Use details and your own ideas about the text to create or continue a narrative.
- Connect: Examine the text(s) for details to use in your writing that support your narrative.
