SUBJECT: 2024 Driver Education Summer Conference

Stephanie Bell
District III

The Alabama State Department of Education, Transportation Section, has set the date for the 2024 Driver Education Summer Conference for June 11-13, 2024, at Gulf Shores High School in Gulf Shores, Alabama. Topics for the conference will include Working With Special Needs Students; Boating Safety; Cooperative Testing for Driver's License; Alabama Law Enforcement Agency Latest News; Transportation and Bus Safety; Alcohol, Drugs and Driving; and other topics important and relevant to driver education. Also, a Bus Driver Recertification Class will be offered on Monday, June 10, 2024, from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. for any teachers wishing to maintain their bus certification.

Yvette M. Richardson, Ed.D.
District IV

There will be an on-site $50 fee to be paid on the first day of the conference, payable to Alabama School Transportation Association, which will cover lunch, snacks, and drinks at all the breaks. The conference is open to all driver education teachers, principals, supervisors, and superintendents. We ask that you make your plans now to attend. The registration deadline is June 3, 2024. Please complete the registration form that can be found at the Registration Form or by scanning the QR code below. There will not be a designated host hotel since all meetings will be held at Gulf Shores High School.
