Caseload

Per 7 CFR 247.G(d) and 7 CFR 247.21(c), Alabama is requesting an increase to 12,000 CSFP caseloads for FY 2025.

Factors Alabama has considered in requesting these figures:

- a. The requested additional caseloads will enable our CSFP program for continued growth for FY 2025 where our food banks will not have to scale back or stall distributions to some of the Alabama current CSFP participants from FY 2024 and potential CSFP participants in FY 2025 that are currently on Alabama's waiting lists.
- b. The additional caseload requests will also allow Alabama food banks to service statewide more potential participants for CSFP distributions essentially in more of our low-income areas and far most rural areas as well.
- c. Our food banks will also have the opportunity with these extra caseloads to grow their client base through outreach covering the present waiting list from FY 2024, create the ability to serve new participants, and provide caseloads to new agencies administering CSFP for our contracted food banks in Alabama where these caseloads are an immediate need for FY 2025.

The state agency reserves the right to redistribute unused caseload among food banks in a manner that ensures that the program utilizes the caseload as fully and appropriately as possible.

While the poverty levels differ within each region, there is a definite need to serve low-income participants throughout the state. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, 18.2% of the Alabama population is over the age of 65. Approximately 11.9% of those seniors are living below the poverty level.

II. COMMODITY SUPPLEMENTAL FOOD PROGRAM

Identification of Participants Population

- a. Current U.S. Census Bureau data will be used to determine, as closely as possible, the number of individuals sixty (60) years of age or older living in the counties to be served by the CSFP in Alabama and to determine the approximate number of individuals that have income at or below one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the federal poverty income guideline.
- b. The SDA will establish communications with the Alabama Department of Senior Services and Alabama Area Council on Aging Offices and shall utilize these and other community groups to identify homebound participants. Food banks who have signed an agreement with the SDA shall also seek to identify homebound participants individuals who may be eligible for program benefits. Program materials regarding the CSFP shall be distributed to these groups, as well as churches, civic organizations, etc., to distribute to homebound participants.
- c. Homebound participants are defined as persons who are, in the judgment of the food bank, unable to obtain monthly food packages without assistance provided by or through the food bank.

- (1) Homebound participants shall be certified by the food bank certification staff or other volunteers providing services to these individuals. Volunteers shall collect eligibility data; however, certification shall be accomplished by food bank certification staff.

During the certification process, volunteer staff shall explain to homebound participants how the CSFP operates as well as their rights and responsibilities as a participant of the program. Homebound participants shall be provided with the name of the local agency site responsible for issuing their food package and the name of a contact person to be called for assistance.

- (2) Food banks shall make food available to be delivered to homebound participants each month. Homebound participants shall sign the Issuance Register acknowledging receipt of food packages.
- (3) SDA staff shall provide training to food bank staff and volunteers prior to program implementation regarding the responsibilities involved in serving homebound participants. Ongoing training shall be provided as needed by SDA to assist local agencies in training new volunteer staff. This training shall consist of, at a minimum:
 - (a) Eligibility determination process
 - (b) Documentation requirements
 - (c) Civil rights
 - (d) Food issuance procedures

Outreach

The following activities shall be employed by the SDA in conjunction with food banks to raise public awareness about the CSFP in order to attain the maximum allowed caseload:

Brochures and flyers, providing information about the program, shall be developed and disseminated to senior congregate meal sites, faith-based organizations, civic organizations, and other community groups.

- a. The SDA also administers The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP). TEFAP participants who may be eligible for CSFP shall be informed about the program and referred to the food bank for program benefits.
- b. Newspaper articles, radio, and television announcements may be utilized by state and local agencies, if necessary, to inform the public of CSFP services and how to apply.

III. CERTIFICATION

- c. The Verification of Certification shall include the following information:
 - (1) Name of participant.

- a. The food banks shall be responsible for ensuring that a check of identification occurs during the certification or recertification of all applicants. The application to receive benefits signed by the applicant or caretaker of the applicant, includes a statement advising the applicant that he or she may not receive CSFP benefits at more than one CSFP site at the same time.
- b. Semi-annually, the food bank shall submit an electronic spreadsheet with the names and identifying information of individuals participating in the CSFP. This information will be submitted to the SDA for comparison and the detection of dual participation. The SDA will notify the food bank if any participant is determined to be dually participating in the CSFP. If a participant is found to be committing dual participation, necessary and appropriate actions are taken in accordance with federal regulations.

Disqualification

- a. The SDA may disqualify applicants and participants from program participation for a period not to exceed one year if it is established that the applicant, participant, or caretaker fraudulently obtained or used program benefits. Fair hearing information shall be given to the participant at the time of disqualification. Reasons for disqualification may include the following:
 - (1) Making false statements orally or in writing in order to obtain benefits to which the individual would not otherwise be eligible.
 - (2) Concealing information in order to obtain benefits for which the individual is not eligible.
 - (3) Altering a Verification of Certification Form.
 - (4) Using supplemental foods in an unauthorized manner, such as trading or selling the food.
- b. If it is determined by the SDA or the food bank that a serious health risk will result from disqualification from the program and the participant is currently eligible, the disqualification may be waived.
- c. Clients may be disqualified if they do not collect their food for two consecutive months without a legitimate reason for doing so. Clients disqualified in this manner will be notified, in writing, at least fifteen (15) days prior to removal from the program. Clients disqualified in this manner may apply for the program again but, if eligible, will be placed at the end of any waiting list. Specific guidance on this policy is provided by the SDA in a policy memo.

Program Referrals

- a. Each applicant/participant shall be provided written information regarding SNAP, Supplemental Security Income (SSI) Program, and the Medicaid Program, including medical assistance, provided to qualified Medicare beneficiaries at the time of the initial certification. The certification staff shall document the date information was provided on the certification form when eligibility for program benefits is determined.
- b. When applicable, the local agencies shall provide written information and referrals to Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP) to all CSFP participants.

- d. Information on the use of supplemental foods and the nutritional value of foods.
- e. An explanation of the importance of healthcare.

In order for CSFP to provide both immediate and long-term improvement in the health status of participants, the food bank shall make nutrition education available as outlined below. This shall be thoroughly integrated into program operations and shall have the dual purpose of (1) ensuring that the CSFP foods are used properly, and (2) providing knowledge that encourages habitual selection and consumption of nutritious foods necessary for optimal health.

The food bank shall agree to implement a plan of action including the following categories for ensuring that the nutrition objectives and goals of the Alabama CSFP are met:

V. FOOD DELIVERY SYSTEM

USDA Foods for the CSFP program shall be received and stored by the food banks identified in Section I.

All agencies shall separate CSFP foods from other food stored at their facilities. Each food bank shall receive USDA Foods directly from USDA or the SDA in sufficient quantities for distribution in the counties under their jurisdiction.

Order, Ship, and Delivery Procedures: The SDA shall order USDA Foods as directed by the USDA. The USDA approved systems, such as the Web Based Supply Chain Management System (WBSCM), shall be used to order food. USDA Foods shall be ordered as Multi-Food ("Mixed Load") shipments or Direct Shipment ("Full Truckloads of one Item"). All orders shall be submitted as directed by the USDA (up to one year in advance of the anticipated delivery date for direct shipments and approximately two (2) months prior to the month of distribution for multi-food shipments).

Each food bank's food estimate for the quarter shall be computed based on the average caseload levels by category during the previous quarter and anticipated growth if the maximum caseload has not been achieved. The amount of food ordered shall also take into account the food that is "on hand" at the food bank as well as "food in transit." Inventory levels shall be maintained with a two (2) and one-half month carry-over whenever possible. The food banks shall provide input to the SDA regarding the types and quantities of USDA Foods that should be ordered during a given quarter.

Deliveries shall be made directly to food bank warehouses from the USDA vendors. The USDA shall pay the cost of shipping to the food banks. Bulk food orders sufficient for monthly food packages may be delivered to food bank Certification/Distribution sites by truck or will be picked up from the food bank warehouse by Certification/Distribution Agency staff for distribution to participants. Local agencies may also assemble monthly food packages. Local agencies shall absorb the cost of transporting food packages to their sites.

1. Food Distribution Procedures: The food banks and local agencies shall issue supplemental food packages to participants monthly. Each participant shall receive a one (1) month supply of food based on the maximum monthly distribution rates. Participants shall receive a food package each month at the pick-up site where they were certified. Homebound participants may designate a proxy to pick up their food and the staff person issuing the food shall verify the identification of the proxy. If no proxy is designated the food packages shall be delivered to the homebound participant.

Food recipients (including proxies) have the option to present identification, or a food bank/local agent can use one of the below identifiers at the time of distribution.

- a. Staff Verification: Allow trusted staff members or leaders to verify participants' identities based on their knowledge of the individuals.
- b. Self-Attestation: Have participants sign a statement confirming their identity and eligibility for the program, which can be cross-verified with program records.
- c. Digital Verification: Use online platforms where participants can confirm their identity through secure login or personal information validation.

Participants (including proxies) should acknowledge receipt of supplemental foods by signing a Supplemental Food Issuance Register or other required food bank and/or local agency documents approved by the SDA documenting receipt of food for the issuance month. All Food Issuance Registers shall be kept on file for inspection by the SDA during annual reviews.

2. Inventory Accountability: Food bank staff shall be responsible for maintaining a system that shall ensure the proper handling, storage, and distribution of supplemental foods.
 - a. Food banks and local agencies shall conduct an inventory in order to document distributions occurring during the month and report month-end inventory levels on an FNS-153 form to SDA CSFP staff by the tenth (10th) of each month.
 - b. Food banks and local agencies shall report all situations of damages or losses to the SDA within ten (10) days after a loss occurs. All food losses and damages shall also be documented and tallied in the Food Loss column of an FNS 153 report with an explanation of the food tosses. Book inventory adjustments to physical inventory counts shall be shown in the positive and negative columns of the FNS 153 report.
 - c. Food banks and local agencies shall ensure that all food packages distributed to pick up sites are accounted for each month. Each local agency shall submit a monthly report to the food bank by the fifth (5th) of each month to document distributions occurring during the previous month.

VI. STATE PLANNING

The SDA shall meet periodically with the food banks operating the program to discuss issues regarding program operations and to identify and evaluate suggestions for improvement. The SDA and food banks shall seek input from program participants through the use of questionnaires, telephone conversations, and interviews.

VII. STATE AGENCY AUDITS

The ALSDE, Child Nutrition Food Distribution Programs, is audited by the State Auditor's Office using requirements for financial and compliance audits as established by the OMB Circular Number A-133. The scope of the audit includes detailed audits of receipts and expenditures to assure compliance with state and federal accounting principles and regulations. All USDA-FNS programs operated by the SDA are included in the universe of federal awards from which an audit sample is taken. The State Auditor's Office is an independent department of state government and is completely independent of the ALSDE.

Audits: All food banks and local agencies operating the program shall be audited every two years (50% of local agencies every year within the two years) in accordance with the Single Audit Act and OMB Circular A-133 by SDA Staff. Food banks and local agencies shall supply data collection forms, any management form associated with CSFP, and a corrective action plan within thirty (30) calendar days of the receipt of the audit report but no later than nine (9) months following the end of the food bank's fiscal year. The SDA staff shall review all audits and take appropriate follow-up action on all food bank and local agency audits. A complete copy of the audit shall be on file with the SDA for review by the USDA.

VIII. COMPLAINTS

The SDA shall be responsible for ensuring that all complaints regarding supplemental foods are resolved appropriately. The following steps shall be taken:

- a. Upon receipt of any complaint regarding supplemental food, the food bank shall document the date the complaint was received, the participant's name, address, and the nature of the complaint.
- b. The food bank shall forward a copy of the complaint to the SDA immediately for a follow-up investigation.
- c. The SDA staff assigned to the CSFP shall initiate contact with the participant to determine the validity and seriousness of the complaint.
- d. If the complaint is not of a serious nature, the SDA shall work with the food bank and participant to resolve the complaint.
- e. Any complaints deemed to be of a serious nature shall be forwarded to the USDA - FNS, Southeast Regional Office within ten (10) days for further investigation and a final disposition.

IX. CLAIMS

The SDA has established the following claim procedures regarding foods received or used by a participant through fraud:

- a. The food bank will issue a letter to the participant indicating that they are ineligible for participation in the CSFP program for a period of up to one year, in accordance with the requirements of §247.20(b).

- b. A letter demanding repayment for the value of USDA Foods improperly received or used will be issued in instances when the dollar value is determined to be over $100. Payment is to be received within 30 days of the date the letter was sent.
- c. Additional measures will be taken as necessary if payment is not received within 30 days.

X. Public Posting

Availability of USDA Foods

- a. The state agency is required to maintain a publicly accessible list of all CSFP local agencies on a website. This list should include the name, address, and telephone number of each local agency, and must be updated annually.

State Plan

- a. A current copy of the state agency's State Plan must be posted on a public webpage.
