

Enhancing Access Within the Business Management and Administration Cluster

Key Points

- Align course placement with evolving workforce and industry demands.
- Expand student access to high-value digital competencies.
- Strengthen statewide readiness in emerging technology fields.

ALABAMA STATE DEPARTMENT of EDUCATION

Cross-Cluster Relevance of AI and Cybersecurity

Key Points

- Digital security and automation are central to business operations, analytics, and decision-making.
- Industry standards emphasize interdisciplinary fluency in emerging technologies.
- Supports preparation for a wide range of high-growth careers.

ALABAMA STATE DEPARTMENT of EDUCATION

Benefits to Students, LEAs, and the State

Key Points

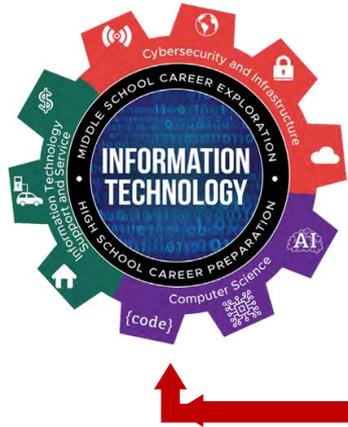

- Increases access to advanced coursework and industry-recognized credentials.
- Enhances scheduling and staffing flexibility for LEAs.
- Aligns CTE programming with Alabama's economic and workforce development priorities.

ALABAMA STATE DEPARTMENT of EDUCATION

Broadening Digital Learning Opportunities in Business Management & Administration

2022 Alabama Course of Study:
Information Technology

Information Technology Cluster Courses
Course Number	Course Name
22161G1001	Artificial Intelligence
10020G1011	Cybersecurity I
10020G1012	Cybersecurity II
10020G1013	Cybersecurity III

2021 Alabama Course of Study:
Business Management and Administration

Computer Science

Cybersecurity and Infrastructure

Business Information Technology

ALABAMA STATE DEPARTMENT of EDUCATION

Office of Career and Technical Education/Workforce Development

Dodd Hawthorne

Assistant State Superintendent
dodd.hawthorne@alsde.edu
334.694.4907

Dawn Morrison

Section Coordinator
dmorrison@alsde.edu
334.694.4762

