RE: Act 2025-268: Second Allocation Supplemental Funding for the School Breakfast Program

Kelly Mooney
District III
President Pro Tem

Act 2025-268, authorizes supplemental appropriations for Alabama’s Fiscal Year 2025, ending September 30, 2025. As part of this legislation, funds have been designated to support schools participating in the School Breakfast Program that provide meals at no cost to all students through the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) or Universal Breakfast.

Yvette M. Richardson, Ed.D.
District IV

Purpose of the Funding

- Offset the financial burden on schools serving breakfast to all students, regardless of income eligibility.
- Ensure students across Alabama have access to nutritious morning meals at no cost.
- Promote student well-being through improved nutritional support.

Tonya S. Chestnut, Ed.D.
District V

Allocation and Use of Funds

- Funds should be applied to cover the cost of meals that would otherwise be paid for by students not eligible for free meals.

Marie Manning
District VI
Vice President

Promoting Participation

Schools receiving this funding are encouraged to promote their breakfast programs through the state’s “Strong Start and Strong Finish with Alabama’s School Breakfast” campaign. Social media artwork and promotional materials are available at breakforaplate.com.

Allen Long, M.D.
District VII

Disbursement of Funds

Funds will be automatically disbursed with this memo and should be recorded using revenue code 2901 and fund source code 5101. The first allocation was disbursed on August 11, 2025, to all schools that participated in the CEP in school year 2025. The second allocation includes schools new to the CEP in school year 2026. A third allocation will be distributed in March 2026 in the form of a grant targeting schools that have not received breakfast funding.

Wayne Reynolds, Ed.D.
District VIII
